Why are you filling in this form?

As a financial service provider, we are legally obliged to identify, investigate and prevent money laundering and terrorist financing. This role is called the gatekeeper role. To fulfill this obligation, we need more information about our relationships. Part of the investigation is that we have to determine the origin of the assets.

Would you therefore like to complete this form completely, print it and put your signature at the bottom? Then send this form back to us together with the signed acceptance form.

Please note: if you are investing in a mortgage loan together with someone else, both fill out a form.

If you have any questions, feel free to call or email us. We are happy to assist you.
